Confidential EdgeMode Inc Master Services Agreement Version dated: 27th December 2024 any similar expression shall be construed as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the words preceding those terms and shall be construed to mean including without limitation . Any reference to a certain document is a reference to that document as amended, varied, supplemented or renewed from time to time . In the event of any ambiguity or conflict, the following order of precedence shall apply : the Order but only then to the extent it is expressly stated to vary the Master Services Agreement; then the terms and conditions set out in the Master Services Agreement above and below including the Particulars, then the Service Schedules (and any Annexes to them), then the Rules & Regulations, lastly any documents incorporated by reference or appended to an Order except to the extent at any special conditions are explicitly stated as amending any terms of the Master Services Agreement in an Order. STRUCTURE OF AGREEMENT From time to time the parties, or a Group Company of either or both of the parties (as applicable), may sign Orders for the provision of Services . In all instances, the entering into an Order by the Service Provider or one of its Group Companies shall be subject to the Service Provider being reasonably satisfied that the financial covenant strength of the Customer is sufficient for the Customer to comply with its obligations under the Order . All Orders will be subject to the terms of this Master Services Agreement above and below and any terms contained in the applicable Service Schedules and shall (together with the Rules & Regulations and any documents incorporated by reference or appended to an Order) be deemed incorporated into this Master Services

Agreement to form one agreement between the parties . Each Order shall be a separate contract between the parties to it, incorporating the terms of this MSA but not incorporating the terms of any other Order . Subject to Conditions 8 . 1 and 14 . 2 , the terms of this Master Services Agreement apply to the exclusion of the applicability of any terms and conditions supplied by the Customer to the Service Provider or that accompany any purchase order or other ordinary document . PROVISION OF SERVICES In consideration of the Fees and subject to earlier termination in accordance with the terms of this Master Services Agreement the Service Provider will provide the Services from the relevant Service Commencement Date for the relevant Order Term in accordance with the terms of this Master Services Agreement . The Service Provider shall provide the Services in accordance with this Master Services Agreement except to the extent that any service level agreement in a Service Schedule explicitly stipulates otherwise. The Service Provider shall perform the Services with reasonable care and skill and in accordance with his Master Services Agreement but the Service Provider will not be in breach of this Condition 3 as a result of any failure or interruption of any of the Services : resulting from a Force Majeure Event, so long as the Service Provider uses its reasonable endeavours (given the circumstances) to remedy the same as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of such circumstances ; or except for those Services which are subject to a Service Level, to the extent that the Services (or any of them) cannot reasonably be provided as a result of works of inspection, maintenance, support and/or repair or other works being carried out on the fiber network, fiber facility or at the Data Centre ; or resulting from a breach of the obligations of the Customer including failure to comply with the Rules & Regulations . The Service Provider reserves the right to refuse access to the Data Centre or the Telehousing or remove from the Data Centre or the Telehousing any employees and sub - contractors of the Customer whose admission or presence is or would be in the reasonable opinion of the Service Provider detrimental to the security of the Data Centre or in respect of whom the Customer has failed in writing to request a right of access from the Service Provider and the Service Provider will 1.7 1.8 1.8.1 1.8.2 1.8.3 1.8.4 1.8.5 1.8.6 2 2.1 2.2 3 3.1 3.2 3.3 3.3.1 3.3.2 3.3.3 3.3.4 not be responsible for the consequences of any such refusal or failure or delay by the Customer in notifying it of its access requirements . Service Provider, at Customer's request pursuant to an Order, may provide Customer with equipment for use by Customer . Such equipment will be clearly described in the relevant Order . Under no circumstances shall the legal title to such equipment transfer to Customer unless such equipment is designated in the relevant Order as Service Provider Procured Equipment . Legal title to Service Provider Procured Equipment will transfer to Customer on receipt by Service Provider of the applicable One - Off Charge or, where the One - Off Charge is stated in the relevant Order to be payable in instalments, on payment of the last instalment of the One - Off Charge . In the event that the relevant Order is terminated or expires prior to the payment of the last instalment of the One - Off Charge, Customer shall immediately pay to Service Provider an amount equivalent to the balance of then unpaid instalments of the One - Off Charge . CUSTOMER'S OBLIGATIONS

The Customer shall at its own cost apply for, possess and maintain any and all authorisations, licences, registrations, and/or permits which is required to enable it to conduct its business and to use the Services . The Customer undertakes to and shall comply with : the terms and/or conditions as set forth in any authorisations, licences or permits ; its obligations set out in any Service Schedule; and the Rules & Regulations. The Customer shall indemnify, keep indemnified, hold harmless and defend the Service Provider in respect of any loss, damage or expense (including legal fees) resulting from: (i) any damage to the Data Centre; (ii) any damage to the fiber ; (iii) any damage to the Telehouse ; (iv) claim brought by third parties relating to damage to, or destruction of, its tangible property in the Data Centre, which in either case is caused by the acts or omissions of the Customer, its employees, representatives, agents or contractors ; or (v) in the case of Services provided under the Colocation Services Schedule (the "CSS" ), any claim brought against the Service Provider by another user of the Data Centre or any liability of the Service Provider to pay service credits to a user of the Data Centre as a direct result of the Customer drawing power in excess of its Total Contracted Power (as defined under the CSS) and such excess power draw results in the Service Provider not having the capacity to provide the necessary power and resiliency to other users of the Data Centre . Upon the expiry of the Order Term, or upon termination of this Master Services Agreement (including any Order) pursuant to the terms set out in Condition 9 , Customer shall promptly return to Service Provider any equipment made available to Customer (other than Service Provider Procured Equipment, the title to which has passed to Customer in accordance with the terms of this Master Services Agreement) in compliance with the conditions of this Master Services Agreement . Customer shall pay Service Provider the One - Off Charges as detailed in the applicable Order for the provision of the Service Provider Procured Equipment (if any) set out in that Order and in accordance with Condition 4 . 4 . FEES AND PAYMENT The Customer shall pay the Fees for the Services with effect from the Service Commencement Date . Unless stated otherwise in the Order or in the Service Schedule with respect to Fees for particular elements of the Services, the Service Provider shall issue invoices monthly in advance of the first day of each calendar month . Unless stated otherwise in the Order, any charges for Ancillary Services shall be invoiced monthly in arrears . The Customer shall pay all undisputed invoices, or all undisputed parts of invoices (as the case maybe) in full and cleared funds within 30 days of the date of the invoice . If the Customer disputes an invoice or any element of it, it must, when disputing it provide clear and complete details as to why it does not consider that the invoice or any element of it is not due . The parties will in good faith and expediently work to resolve any dispute concerning an invoice . Any sums payable under this Master Services Agreement shall be paid in United States Dollars (unless a different currency is stated in the Order) to the relevant bank accounts as stated on the invoices for the same . Confidential EdgeMode Inc Master Services Agreement Version dated: 27th December 2024 for determining the payment time . The Fees shall be payable by banker's standing order . The Service Provider may increase Fees on the Indexation Date each year by three per cent ( 3 % ) or (if higher) the percentage increase in the UK CPI during the 12 months preceding that date (for which purposes the percentage increase in the CPS will be calculated using the figure for the CPI last published before the start of such 12 - month period and the figure for the UK CPI last published before the end of such 12 - month period), and may be subject to further increase in accordance with Condition 5 . 7 . The Service Provider may increase Fees at any time to include any reasonable charges, levies or taxes introduced by the government or any regulatory bodies that are applicable to the Services and the Service Provider shall notify the Customer of the same in writing no less than 30 days in advance of any such increase taking effect . If any sum due under this Master Services Agreement is not paid by the Customer by the due date, then (without prejudice to the Service Provider's other rights and remedies) the Service Provider reserves the right to charge interest on such sums on a daily basis (after as well as before judgment) from the due date to the date of payment If any sum due under this Master Services Agreement is not paid by the Customer within 14 days of the due date then (without prejudice to the Service Provider's other rights and remedies) the Service Provider reserves the right (subject to giving to the Customer not less than a further 7 days' notice of its intention to do so) to deny the Customer access to the Data Centre or to the Services provided under this Master Services Agreement . All sums payable are exclusive of VAT or any other applicable tax or duty payable upon such sums that shall be added if appropriate at the rate prevailing at the relevant tax point . Deposit : Service provider shall designate the level of deposit required for any specific order via the service provider Order Form, with the amount calculated as percentage of the contract value of the relevant Order(s) . This deposit may be used by service provider at the start of the contract for the purchase of hardware or other necessary expenditures associated with setting up the services . The deposit will roll over and remain applicable with each automatic renewal of the contract and will continue to be held until the final termination of the contract . In the event of contract termination, the deposit may be applied towards any outstanding amounts due, including the final month's payment, provided all outstanding fees are satisfied and there is compliance with the terms of this agreement . If the customer terminates the contract early, service provider reserves the right to retain the deposit to cover any incurred damages, outstanding payments, or other costs associated with the early termination . INDEMNITY For loss or damage suffered by Service Provider, Customer or any third party in connection with this Master Services Agreement, Order, Service Schedule or any Ancillary Service and Subject to Condition 8 (LIMITATION OF LIABILITY) the following shall apply ; (i) Service Provider shall be liable for property damage and bodily injury suffered by Customer in accordance with applicable tort law. (ii) Customer shall be liable for property damage and bodily injury suffered by Service Provider in accordance with applicable tort law. (iii) each party shall be liable for loss or damage suffered by a third party in accordance with applicable tort law. INSURANCE The Customer shall : give the Service Provider immediate notice on becoming aware of any event or circumstance which might affect or lead to a claim under the insurances referred to in Condition 7 . 1 and 7 . 2 ; not do anything which would or might prejudice or invalidate the insurance of the Data Centre, fibre network or any Telehousing or cause any premium for its insurance to be increased ; o pay to the Service Provider within 14 days of demand any increased premium and any costs and expenses incurred by the Service Provider as a result of a breach of Condition 7.2.2 ; maintain a property damage insurance providing coverage for physical damage to Customer Equipment and he Service Provider Procured Equipment for the full reinstatement value, unless the insurance is invalidated in whole or in part by any act or default of the 5.5 5.6 5.7 5.8 5.9 5.10 5.11 6 6.1 7 7.1 7.1.1 7.1.2 7.1.3 7.1.4 7.1.5 Service Provider ; maintain general and products liability insurance providing coverage for third party property damage and bodily injury with a limit of € 5 , 000 , 000 (five million Euros, or an equivalent in another currency) per occurrence and in the annual aggregated ; and in respect of Conditions 7 . 2 . 4 and 7 . 2 . 5 to ensure that the required insurance is valid in the country in which the Data Centre is located and shall provide to the Service Provider a copy of the insurance policy or a certificate of insurance evidencing that its insurance requirements have been complied with . 6 . 3 All insurances as required in Conditions 7 . 1 shall be kept in force for the duration of this Master Services Agreement and shall be placed with reputable and substantial insurers . LIMITATION OF LIABILITY This Condition 8 sets out the maximum liability of the parties (including any liability for the acts and omissions of its employees, agents and sub - contractors) to each other under or in connection with this Master Services Agreement and/or an Order and/or a Service Schedule (as the case may be) howsoever arising (including as a result of negligence, pursuant to an indemnity or any breach of its obligations under this Master Services Agreement for breach of statutory duty or otherwise), but nothing in this Master Services Agreement shall exclude or limit the parties' liability for (i) death or personal injury (ii) 7.1.6 7.1.7 7.2 8 8.1 losses incurred based on the other party's fraudulent misrepresentation, and (iii) for losses incurred by one party based on the other party's gross negligence or wilful misconduct . Without prejudice to Conditions 8 . 3 and 8 . 4 (and subject to Conditions 8 . 1 and 8 . 2 ) the total liability of each party to the other under this Master Services Agreement shall not exceed € 50 , 000 (fifty thousand Euros, or the equivalent in the currency of the country where the Data Centre is and as calculated on oanda . com) . For the purpose of this Condition 8 . 5 only, reference to Master Services Agreement does not include any Orders, Service Schedules and Annexes . The Customer acknowledges that given the nature of the Data Centre and the Services and its own obligations under this Master Services Agreement, it is reasonable for the Service Provider to exclude or limit its liability as set out in this Condition 8 . 8.2 8.2.1 8.2.2 8.2.3 8.2.4 8.2.5 8.3 8.4 8.5 8.6 9 9.1 TERM AND TERMINATION This Master Services Agreement (but disregarding, for the purpose of this Condition, any Orders) shall commence on the date of signature and continue unless and until either terminated with the agreement of both parties or, where there are no Orders then in force, upon service of 90 days' notice in writing by either party . Termination of this Master Services Agreement shall not automatically terminate all Orders then in force, which shall continue subject to their own terms unless agreed otherwise by the parties in writing . 9.2

Confidential EdgeMode Inc Master Services Agreement Version dated: 27th December 2024 Termination or expiry of any Order shall not affect or terminate any other existing Orders which shall continue in full force and effect, unless stated otherwise in any Order . Either party may immediately terminate this Master Services Agreement without payment of compensation or other damages caused to the other solely by such termination by giving notice to the other if any one or more of the following events happens : the other party commits a material breach of any of its obligations under this Master Services Agreement that is incapable of remedy ; or the other party fails to remedy, where it is capable of remedy, any breach of its obligations under this Master Services Agreement (save as to payment) within a period of 30 days after having been required in writing to remedy or desist from such breach ; or the other party calls a meeting for the purpose of passing a resolution to wind it up, or such a solution is passed, or a resolution is passed by the directors of the other party to seek a winding up or administration order, or the other party is the subject of a petition for a winding up order, or an application, notice of intention or other step to appoint an administrator, or has an administrative receiver or receiver appointed over all or any part of its business, undertaking, property or assets . Each Order shall come into force on the date of the signature of the same by the Service Provider and the Customer (whichever shall be the later) and shall continue for the Initial Term . At the end of Initial Term each Order shall expire unless it is otherwise stated in the Order to continue for an Extended Term commencing on the day after the expiry of the Initial Term or (as the case may be) each Extended

Term provided that either the Service Provider or the Customer may elect for that Order to terminate on the expiry of the Initial Term or (as the case may be) each Extended Term by giving notice in writing to the other not less than 90 days before the expiry of the Initial Term or (as the case may be) the relevant Extended Term . Either party may immediately terminate an Order without payment of compensation or other damages caused to the other solely by such termination by giving notice to the other if any one or more of the following events happens : the other party fails to pay any sum payable under the Order within 14 days of the due date for payment in accordance with this Master Services Agreement, subject to the party seeking to terminate having given the defaulting party not less than 14 days' further notice of its intention to terminate ; or the other party commits a material breach of any of its obligations under the Order that is incapable of remedy ; or the other party fails to remedy, where it is capable of remedy, any breach of its obligations under the Order (save as to payment) within a period of 30 days after having been required in writing to remedy or desist from such breach . Termination of this Master Services Agreement or any Order shall be without prejudice to the other rights and remedies of either party both under this Master Services Agreement and at law . 9.3 9.3.1 9.3.2 9.3.3 9.4 9.5 9.6 9.6.1 9.6.2 9.6.3 9.7 10 10.1 FORCE MAJEURE If any party is affected by a Force Majeure Event the affected party shall : promptly notify the other parties of the Force Majeure Event ; keep that party informed of their continuance and of any relevant change of circumstances whilst such Force Majeure Event continues ; and take reasonable steps to overcome the effects of the Force

Majeure Event (except that this shall not require either party to settle industrial disputes or other claims on unreasonable terms) . Subject to Condition 10 . 1 , a Force Majeure Event shall not entitle either party to terminate this Master Services Agreement and neither party shall be in breach of this Master Services Agreement, or otherwise liable to the other, by reason of any delay in performance or non - performance of any of its obligations due to such Force Majeure Event and the date for performance of the obligations affected (except for payment) will be deemed suspended only for a period equal to the delay caused by such Force Majeure Event . If the party affected by a Force Majeure Event fails to comply with its obligations under this Condition 10 10.1.1 10.1.2 10.1.3 10.2 then no relief as set out in this Condition shall be available to it and the obligations of each party shall continue in force . If (and so long as) a Force Majeure Event continues, then the Fees, or a fair proportion of the Fees according to the nature and extent of the Services the provision of which is prevented by the Force Majeure Event, will be suspended (and for the avoidance of doubt, no Fees shall be deemed to accrue during the suspension period) . If (and so long as) a Force Majeure Event continues for more than 3 months, then the Customer may terminate the affected Services solely by such termination by giving 30 days' notice in writing to the Service Provider .

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS This Master Services Agreement shall not be deemed to assign to any party any Intellectual Property Rights belonging to the other . Each party retains all of its own Intellectual Property Rights, whether owned or licensed, in any documents, data, text, trade marks, brands, logos, information, specifications, drawings or other materials as one party may provide to the other parties from time to time . No party may use the trade mark or logo of the other parties except with the prior written permission of the other parties .

CONFIDENTIALITY Each party undertakes and shall ensure that it will not use, divulge or communicate to any person, except to its professional representatives or advisers or as may be required by law or any legal or regulatory authority, any and all Confidential Information . Confidential Information for the purposes of this Condition means all information in any medium or format (written, oral, visual or electronic, and whether or not marked or described as "confidential"), together with all reproductions (hard copy or electronic), extracts, summaries or analyses of such information in any medium or format made by or on behalf of any party, which relates to party (the Disclosing Party ) , to a Group Company, or to its (or its Group Companies') employees, officers, customers or suppliers, and which is directly or indirectly disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the other party (the Recipient Party ) in the course of their dealings relating to this Master Services Agreement, before or after the date of this Master Services Agreement . Furthermore, the Recipient Party acknowledges that the Disclosing Party may also disclose Confidential Information to banks and lenders for the purpose of obtaining financial services or support as necessary for the performance of this Master Services Agreement (whereas the Recipient Party must ensure that the banks/lenders are bound by similar or stricter confidentiality obligations and responsibilities as those set out in this Agreement in order to facilitate the business purpose) . Each of the parties shall use its reasonable endeavours to prevent the publication or disclosure of any Confidential Information concerning such matter . However, the following information is not Confidential Information for the purposes of this Master Services Agreement ; information which : is in the public domain other than as a result of breach of this Master Services Agreement or any separate confidentiality undertaking between the parties ; the Recipient Party received, free of any obligation of confidence, from a third party which itself was not under any obligation of confidence in relation to that information ; was developed or created independently by or on behalf of the Recipient Party or any Group Company of the Recipient Party; is obtainable from a commercially available source; or is disclosed pursuant to an administrative or judicial action or pursuant to law. The Customer will not use any trademark, service mark or trade name (whether registered or not) of the Service Provider or Group Companies of the Service Provider or publish any press releases regarding this Master Services Agreement without the prior written consent of the Service Provider . The Service Provider may refer to the Customer as being a customer of the Service Provider in any oral marketing or sales communications or presentations with or to third parties . If the Service Provider wishes to refer in writing to the Customer as being a customer of the Service Provider in any sales or marketing communications with third parties it shall request approval to do so from the Customer, which approval the Customer shall not unreasonably withhold or delay .

Customer shall not, other than as is permitted under this Condition 13.1, assign, novate, transfer, sub - contract, sub - license or otherwise part with this Master Services Agreement or any of its rights or obligations under this Master Services Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of the Service Provider. The Customer may assign the benefit of this Master Services Agreement and/or novate this Master Services Agreement to any Group Company provided that such Group Company has first sought and obtained approval in writing from the Service Provider for the same and on the basis that, in the reasonable opinion of the Service Provider, the Group Company has sufficient financial covenant strength to fulfil its obligations under this Master Services Agreement any relevant Order and is of good repute. The Service Provider may assign the benefit of this Master Services Agreement and/or novate this Master Services Agreement to any third party by way of a novation agreement in such form as may be reasonably required by the Service Provider and the parties hereby agree to enter into and execute such novation agreement and/or any other documentation reasonably required by the Service Provider to give effect to this Condition. The Service Provider may sub - contract all or any of its respective obligations under this Master Services Agreement, provided that if it sub - contracts any of its respective obligations under this Master Services Agreement, it shall not be relieved of any of its liabilities or obligations under this Master Services Agreement by entering into any sub - contract and the Service Provider accepts liability for the acts and omissions of any sub contractor as fully as if they were the acts or omissions of the Service Provider. GENERAL This Master Services Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties in relation to their subject matter. Each of the parties acknowledges that in entering into this Master Services Agreement it has not relied on any oral or written representation, warranty or other assurance (except as provided for in this Master Services Agreement) and waives all rights and remedies which might otherwise be available to it in respect thereof, except that nothing in this Master Services Agreement will limit or exclude either party's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. EdgeMode Inc Annex 1: Colocation Services Version dated: 27th December 2024 Unless otherwise specified on the Order Form, the Services are as follows: 1 COLOCATION SPACE The provision of an area within the Data Hall as described in the Order which is dedicated to the Customer's use for the purposes described in Conditions 2 . 1 and 5 . 5 and which will be kept in the environmental and physical condition as set out in this Annex . POWER The provision and maintenance of uninterrupted generator backed power to at least one of the outgoing circuit terminals of either of the A or B feeds at all times that meets the Power Service Level; and COOLING, HUMIDITY AND VENTILATION The provision and maintenance of a combination of or all of (as is identified in the Order) a heating, ventilation, air conditioning and/ or water cooling system for cooling, humidity control and conditioned air in the Data Hall so that within the Data Hall (and as applicable according to the Order) : (i) the average air temperature measured from the temperature sensors located in the Data Hall supply air plenum meets the Air Cooling Service Level ; (ii) the water temperature range and water flow rate range measured from the delivery point identified in the Order meets the Water Cooling Service Level and (iii) the average humidity measured from the temperature sensors located in the Data Hall supply air plenum meets the Humidity Service Level, and so long as, in all cases, at no time shall the power draw by the Customer Equipment exceed the Total Contracted Power or Maximum Power Density . BUILDING MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS The provision and maintenance of a building management system to detect a Service Interruption or Critical Outage . LIGHTING The provision and maintenance of lighting for the permitted use of the Colocation Space so that space is at least to the minimum health and safety regulation standards . ACCESS CONTROL The provision and maintenance of an auditable access control security system for the Common Areas and the Colocation Space with the following requirements : a screening procedure for employees and contractors ; procedures for the logging and storage of all activities generated by the system for least one ( 1 ) week on a rolling basis ; procedures for the issue security/pass badges . EMERGENCY PROCEDURES The maintenance of adequate emergency procedures in respect of the Data Centre . CCTV MONITORING The monitoring of closed circuit television monitoring to the entrance doors to the Colocation Space and the storage of footage generated by the system for at least [seven (7)] days on a rolling basis. FIRE DETECTION Adequate monitoring detection within the Colocation Space including a high sensitivity smoke alarm system, monitoring and alarm equipment, and automatic fire extinguishing system . SECURITY The provision of: high secure perimeter fence; physical barriers between various security zones within the Data Centre; secure entry systems between various zones within the Data Centre in the form of a card reader for full traceability and control; video surveillance of all critical internal and external areas; and 24x7x365 site security. 2 2.1 3 4 5 6 6.1 6.2 6.3 7 8 9 10 10.1 10.2 10.3 10.4 10.5

EdgeMode Inc Annex 2: Service Levels and Credits Version dated: 27th December 2024 1 EXCLUSIONS The Service Provider shall not be liable to pay compensation under this Service Schedule where its failure to meet any of its obligations under this Service Schedule is caused by : any act, omission or default of the Customer or its employees, contractors or customers ; or a defect in the design of any part of the uninterrupted power supply system, heating, ventilation, and air conditioning system or any other system where such design was specified by the Customer ; or a defect in the design of any part of any other system that is installed by or on behalf of the Customer ; or a Force Majeure Event . SERVICE LEVELS This Annex 2 sets out the service levels and service credits applicable to the Colocation Space . Service Credits and/or other compensation under this Annex 2 shall only be payable where the Customer has submitted a claim in writing identifying the circumstances in which the credit and/or compensation arose . SERVICE LEVELS The Power Service Level means that at all times UPS - backed power is provided to at least one of either of the designated A or B PDUs . The Air Cooling Service Level means that at all times the average temperature as measured by the temperature sensors in the Data Hall will be maintained within the allowable temperature range identified in the Order . The Water Cooling Service Level means that at all times the temperature of the water will be maintained within the allowable temperature range identified in the Order and the flow rate of the water will be maintained with the allowable flow rates identified in the Order, provided that : if the water recycled and returned from the Customer's water circulation and cooling system exceeds the return water temperature identified in the Order the Service Provider shall not be liable for any breach of the Water Cooling Service Level; and the Customer agrees and acknowledges that the Service Provider shall not be responsible for the provision of maintenance, nor performance, of any of the customer equipment related the pipework and system downstream of the Service Provider's delivery point. The Humidity Service Level means that at all times the average humidity as measured by the temperature sensors in the Data Hall will be maintained within the allowable range identified in the Order . SERVICE CREDITS Except where a Critical Outage, Water Cooling Outage or Humidity Outage is due to any of the circumstances referred to in section 1 of Annex 2 above, if a Critical Outage, Water Cooling Outage or Humidity Outage occurs during any calendar month the Customer shall receive a credit against the Monthly Charges for the Racks as set out below :

|                                                            | 1.1          | 1.2                                                                 | 1.3 | 1.4                                                    | 2   | 2.1                                                                   | 2.2 | 3                                                                     | 3.1 | 3.2                                                                    | 3.3  | 3.3.1             | 3.3.2                                                    | 3.4 | 4                                                                                   | 4.1 |                                                                                                    |     |                                    |

Any Service Credits shall be set off against the Monthly Charges for the Colocation Space for the next following date for payment of the Monthly Charges (the Next Payment Date ) . If the Service Credits are greater than the amount of Monthly Charges for the Colocation Space to be paid at the Next Payment Date, then in addition to this set - off the Service Provider shall pay to the Customer on the Next Payment Date, the balance of the Service Credit that is over and above the Monthly Charges for the Colocation Space to be paid on the Next Payment Date . TOTAL LIABILITY The Service Provider's entire liability to the Customer and the Customer's sole and exclusive remedy against the Service Provider in respect of a Critical Outage, Water Cooling Outage and Humidity Outage for the Colocation Space and in respect of all loss, damages, costs and expenses caused by or relating thereto, regardless of the form of action, whether in contract, tort (including negligence and breach of statutory duty), or otherwise howsoever caused is as set out in this Annex 2 . TERMINATION FOR MULTIPLE CRITICAL OUTAGES Where there are five ( 5 ) or more unrelated Critical Outages in any 12 months period (where unrelated means each Critical Outage is not a result of one incident or series of connected incidents) the Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Order to which the Critical Outages relate upon written notice to the Service Provider . In such case the notice is immediate, and no notice period is required . However, notice must be given within 3 months of the qualifying event for such termination . Failure to provide notice during this period shall not restrict the customers right to terminate for subsequent future multiple critical outages . 4.1.1 4.1.2 4.1.3 4.2 5 5.1 6 6.1

EdgeMode Inc Annex 3: Electricity Charging Version dated: 27th December 2024 1. DEFINITIONS Accounting Month means (a) the period from and including the Service Commencement Date and ending on the last day of the month following the month in which the Service Commencement Date fell ; and (b) thereafter, a period of time starting on the first day of a month ending on the last day of that month ; Accounting Year means (a) the period from and including the commencement of the Service Period and ending on the last day of the month following the first anniversary of the Service Period commenced ; and (b) thereafter, each subsequent period of 12 months starting on the first day of the applicable month ending on the day before the anniversary of that date ; Ancillary Power Consumption means the aggregate number of kWh of electricity used in the office space and the storage space (if any) as measured and recorded at the supply point(s) of the power distribution system serving the office space and the storage space for the Relevant Period ; Core Power Consumption means the aggregate number of kWh of electricity used by the Customer Equipment as measured and recorded at the Metering Point for the Relevant Period ; Energy Laws means any applicable laws and regulations which make provision for mandatory energy or environmental charges or levies or which imposes any taxes, charges or levies of any nature in respect of use of power or energy consumption (whether directly or indirectly) including new or replacement laws and regulations introduced by the government or any regulatory bodies that are applicable to the consumption of electricity at the Data Centre); Energy Levies means all charges, levies or taxes resulting from Energy Laws that are applicable to the consumption of electricity by the Customer Equipment or, where applicable, used in the office space and the storage space or by the infrastructure used to supply the Services and of which (i) are not comprised in the calculation of the Unit Supply Cost or the Unit Grid Cost and (ii) the Service Provider has notified to the Customer in writing as soon as reasonably possible in advance of any such charges, levies or taxes taking effect; Fixed PUE means the figure determined in accordance with the table included in the Order, where: (a) Power Consumption Percentage = Core Power Consumption in the Relevant Period / Maximum kWh; and (b) Maximum kWh = Total Contracted Power x 24 x days in the Relevant Period; Metering Point means the metering points identified in the Order Form; Power Consumption means the aggregate of the Core Power Consumption and the Ancillary Power Consumption; Relevant Period means an Accounting Month or an Accounting Year (as applicable); Unit Supply Cost means the aggregate of (i) the unit charge for the supply of electricity and (ii) the unit charges for distribution grid losses and transmission grid losses relating to the distribution of electricity to the Data Centre and (iii) the charges, levies or taxes resulting from Energy Laws that are applicable to the Power Consumption, in each case that are calculated on a per kilowatt - hour basis, and of any other charges or levies calculated on a per kilowatt - hour basis

(excluding those comprised in the calculation of the Unit Grid Cost or Energy Levies), in each case payable by the Service Provider from time to time to its electricity supplier and/or (either directly or indirectly) to the applicable distribution grid and transmission system operators, and notified by the Service Provider to the Customer ; Unit

Grid Cost means the aggregate of (i) the unit charge for the availability of electrical power capacity at the Data Centre and (ii) the distribution and transmission network use of system charges and (iii) the charges, levies or taxes resulting from Energy Laws that are applicable to the Maximum Power Draw, in each case calculated on a per kilowatt basis, and of any other charges or levies calculated on a per kilowatt basis (excluding those comprised in the calculation of the Unit Supply Cost or Energy Levies), in each case payable by the Service Provider from time to time to its electricity supplier and/or (either directly or indirectly) to the applicable distribution grid and transmission system operators, and notified by the Service Provider to the Customer ;

ELECTRICITY CHARGE As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each Accounting Month (using its reasonable endeavours to provide the same no later than 20 Business Days following the end of the relevant Accounting Month), the Service Provider shall calculate and provide to the Customer details of the Power Consumption and the Fixed PUE for the relevant Accounting Month and the Electricity Charge (including details of the components of the formula referred to in clause 2.2 below) . The Electricity Charge in respect of each Accounting Month shall be the sum calculated as follows :  $\text{Electricity Charge} = ((\text{MPC} \times \text{USC} \times \text{MPUE}) + (\text{TCP} \times \text{UGC} \times \text{MP})) \times \text{MAF}$  where: MPC is the Monthly Power Consumption; USC is the Unit Supply Cost in force at the applicable time; MPUE is the fixed PUE in respect of the relevant Accounting Month; MP is the Minimum PUE MAF is 1.05 , being the Service Provider's monthly administration fee in respect of the Electricity Charge ; TCP is the Total Contracted Power ; and UGC is the Unit Grid Cost in force at the applicable time . The Customer shall not be required to pay for any electricity used in construction and commissioning of the Equipment Space .

RECONCILIATION The Unit Supply Cost and Unit Grid Cost shall reflect the actual unit costs for the consumption and availability of electricity from the applicable electricity supplier and distribution grid and transmission system operators, without mark - up by the Service Provider of any kind . The parties acknowledge that the Unit Supply Cost and Unit Grid Cost are subject to adjustment by the applicable electricity supplier and distribution grid and transmission system operators from time to time . The Unit Supply Cost and the Unit Grid Cost shall not be modified unless the actual costs to the Service Provider are increased or decreased . As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each Accounting Year (or, at the discretion of the Service Provider, such shorter period as it determines and, where this applies, reference to "Accounting Year" shall be deemed to be a reference to that shorter period), the Service Provider shall calculate and provide to the Customer details of (a) the Power Consumption for each Accounting Month during the Accounting Year ; (b) the Fixed PUE for each Accounting Month during the Accounting Year ; (c) the amount of the Electricity Charge for each Accounting Month during the Accounting Year ; and (d) the aggregate amount of the Electricity Charge for the Accounting Year, and the Service Provider shall refund to the Customer any overpayment by way of a credit against the next invoice for the Electricity Charge, and the Customer shall pay to the Service Provider any underpayment by way of a credit against the next invoice for the Electricity Charge, of the aggregate amount of the Electricity Charge that should have been paid for that Accounting Year . The Customer shall have the right to audit (i) the Service Provider's calculation of the Electricity Charges (and any of the components of the formula referred to in clause 2 . 2 above) for the whole or any part of any Accounting Year, (ii) the Power Consumption for any Accounting Month, and (iii) the Energy Levies . Each party shall bear its own costs for an audit provided there no more than one audit per calendar year . Should the Customer conduct more than one audit in a calendar year, it shall reimburse the Service Provider for its reasonable costs in relation to each and every audit in that calendar year that is in excess of the first audit . ENERGY LEVIES During the Service Period the Customer shall pay to the Service Provider a fair proportion (as determined by the Service Provider 2. 2.1 2.2 2.3 3. 3.1 3.2 3.3 3.4 4.
